Written Oath of Observance of Research Ethics

Article title: _____

_____

Author name: _____

To Editor-in-chief of the Journal of Korean Powder Metallurgy Institute

I, as a contributor to the Journal of Korean Powder Metallurgy Institute, hereby declare that I have abided by the following Code of Research Ethics of Korea Institute of Powder Metallurgy while writing this article.

1. I swear that I shall observe the Korean Powder Metallurgy Institute's Research Ethics Code and regulations related to research misconduct, and have written this article through honest and rigorous research.
2. I swear that I have not published this article elsewhere and have no plan to submit this article in other journals until the deliberation is over.
3. I swear that I have not committed any research misconducts that can be defined as a violation of Research Ethics, such as forgery (falsification), alteration, plagiarism, duplicate publication, etc., that compromises academic integrity.
4. I swear that I acknowledge the legitimate efforts of participating researchers and did not make unreasonable authorship of those who have not contributed to the research.
5. I swear that I shall take full responsibility for all problems and disadvantages that may arise from noncompliance with the Research Ethics if found guilty of any of the above-mentioned research misconducts.

All authors must sign this Written Oath of Observance of Research Ethics, but in case of necessity, the correspondent author can obtain the consent of other authors and replace them.

All Authors:

_____		_____
Signature	Date	Signature	Date
_____		_____
Signature	Date	Signature	Date

One author on behalf of all co-authors:

"I warrant that I am authorized to execute this copyright on behalf of all the authors of the article referred to above."

_____		_____
Signature	Date	Title

The Korean Powder Metallurgy Institute